

The following is a list of upcoming races in which the course fits the criteria for “record” consideration. The list will be updated from time to time. If a race is of interest to you, it is in your best interest to contact the race director before the race to confirm that the race is going to be staged on a certified course. As an FYI, the USATF Certified Course Database can be found at <https://www.certifiedroadraces.com/search/>

These races have been staged and need to be processed:
